Thank you Mr. President,

I have to say at this point that anyone who has heard or read the declarations to the Press of the actual leadership of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia can judge to what extent the letter and the spirit of the 1995 Interim Agreement has been violated. Anyone can judge, I will say that again; and, of course, these questions will be discussed in the International Court of Hague and I have to repeat that all rights of the Greek citizens are and will be fully respected. That said we don't recognize any "Macedonian" so called minority on our territory.

Thank you
